CLINTON M. PUFF, SUPERINTENDENT

SCOTTDALE, PENNSYLVANIA

To the Class of 1950:

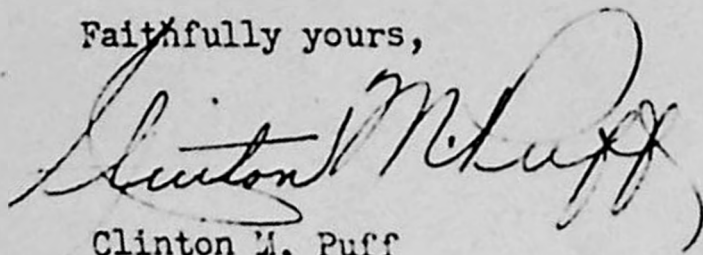

Each class graduated from high school is better than any which has gone before. If that were not so, the school would be standing still instead of progressing as we know it is. And for that reason, the Class of 1950 is the best class ever to be graduated from the Scottdale High School.

Since you are the best class ever to be graduated from the Scottdale High School, more will be expected of you than of any previous class. It will be expected that you are better trained in the fundamentals of language, science, mathematics, etc. It will be expected that you have more highly developed vocational skills and social attitudes. You will be expected to be better workers, better citizens, and better parents than any previous graduates.

If you are really better in all of these respects, then the purpose of your school will have been attained and the ambition of your teachers will have been realized through you. For such is the faith of America in the democratic way of life that its people have gladly provided you, as everyone else, with a free education. And, such is the interest of your teachers in the potential improvement of the democratic way of life and its spread throughout the world that they have gladly dedicated their time and their talents to your training and to the training and education of all American youth.

This is my last word, then, to the Class of 1950: Live up to the standard which has been set for you as the best class ever to be graduated from the Scottdale High School.

Faithfully yours,

A large, stylized handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Clinton M. Puff". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Clinton" being more legible than the last name "Puff".

IN MEMORIAM

Whereas on July 7, 1949, William E. Copley was called into the richer life, beyond our finite knowledge; and

Whereas the members of the Class of 1950 of Scottsdale High School believe:

That they have lost the guidance of a wise counsellor and sincere friend;

That the patrons of the school have lost the cooperation of a man of character and experience;

That his immediate associates have lost the inspiration of a thoughtful and cheerful co-worker;

Therefore it is resolved by the members of the Class of 1950 that Mr. Copley's contribution to the happiness and morale of the students and patrons of Scottsdale High School and his service to the cause of education be commemorated by the enactment of this resolution;

And it is further resolved that the yearbook staff of the Class of 1950, cause it to be written into the 1950 edition of the yearbook of Scottsdale High School.

*"His life was gentle, and the elements
So mix'd in him, that Nature might stand up
And say to all the world, 'This was a man'."*

The driver training course is the most recent addition to the curriculum of Scottsdale High School. Students not only are given instruction in driving but also study the mechanism of the automobile. The Hétzel-Young Motor Company made available a dual-control training car for this course which is scheduled five times a week for a full semester.

Fourteen students enrolled in the first semester class, twelve of whom successfully passed their drivers' tests. Because of the popularity of the course two classes were scheduled for the second semester, with a total enrollment of twenty pupils.

Mr. Walter Keibler is the instructor.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

"A Case of Springtime" a hilarious comedy, presented by the Class of 1950 at the Strand Theater, topped the second semester calendar of senior activities.

Of all impossible situation and unsolvable mysteries presented in class plays in by-gone years, none has ever attempted sawing a woman in half and that was exactly what Bob, the leading character, Keith Hyatt, attempts with sad results. To make matters worse he selects the principal's daughter Joan Abernaker, Joann Schrecengost, for the gruesome experiment. Complications, including a borrowed formal coat which gets dyed bright yellow, home-made booby traps devised by the kid brother, played by Richard Keim, follow thick and fast. Events finally take a turn for the better and Bob finds himself sitting on top of the world. The entire cast gave an excellent performance of this frolicsome comedy.

Miss Laughrey directed the plays selecting Dolores Lucas, as her student assistant.

First Row: J. Popochock, E. Lesniowski, N. Coughenour, J. Tedrow. Second Row: Miss Stoner, M. Hardy, J. Laughrey, A. M. Cossell, J. Clark, M. E. Ruth. Third Row: W. Harden, J. Christner, A. Boyle, J. Banazak.

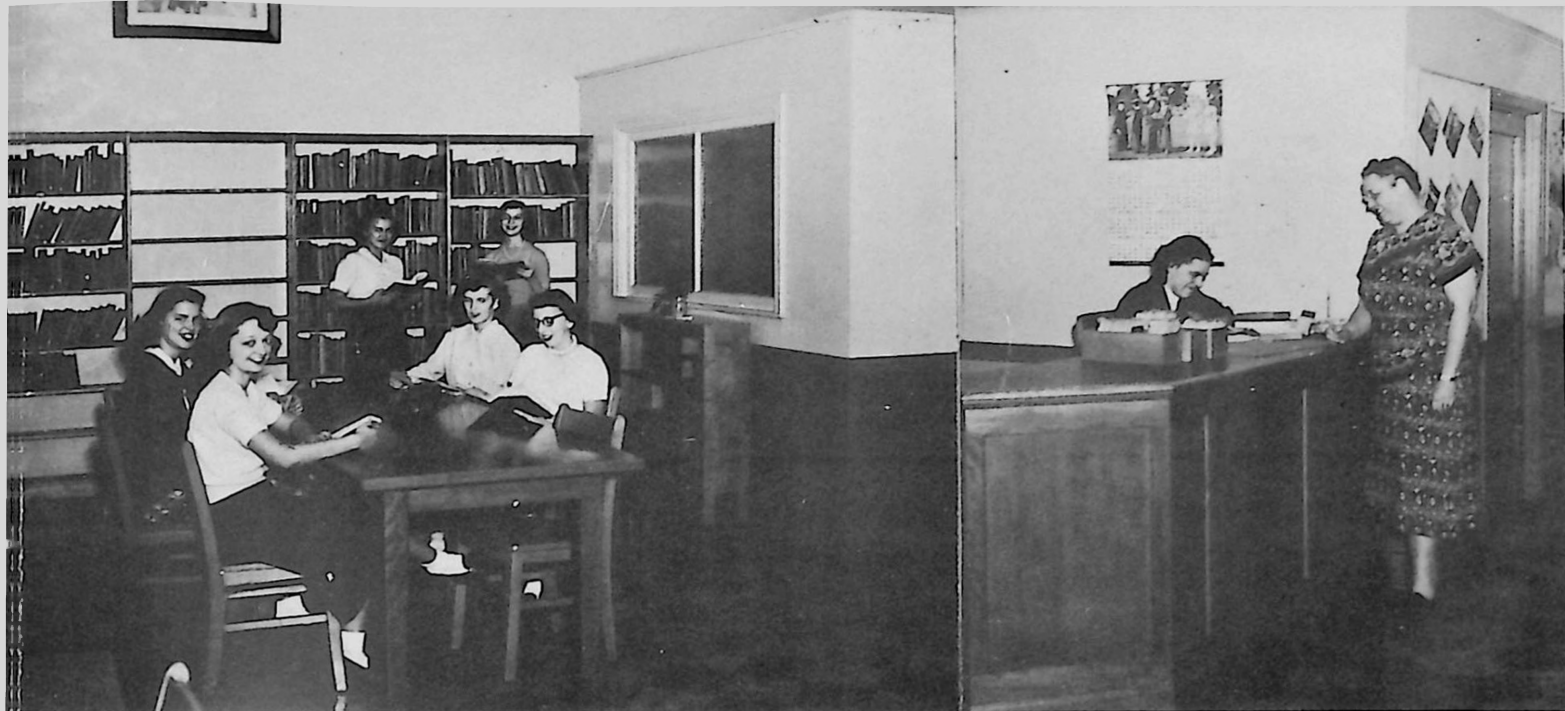

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"The Stuffed Shirt," a three-act comedy of modern family life was presented by the junior class at the Strand Theater, early in the second semester.

Although teen-agers are not usually thought of as "stuffed shirts", Art Boyle played the part perfectly in the role of Sherrod Root who is engaged to pretty Nelda Dobson, Nancy Coughenour. As one would expect of a boyfriend of such undesirable personality, Root has sharp but unexpected competition in the person of "a sweet little boy," Don Eckhard, played by Joseph Banazak. Lynn, Nelda's older sister, played by Janice Laughrey, finds "the stuffed shirt" not such bad company. Confused identity of a teenage quiz kid, played by Jane Tedrow, adds further complications. All cast members contributed to the success of the performance.

This captivating comedy furnished an entertaining evening to all. Miss Stoner directed the play, choosing Marilyn Hardy as her student assistant.

HONOR SOCIETY

The Scottdale High School Honor Society, sponsored by Miss Ann Dick, is an organization of strictly limited membership. Only juniors and seniors are eligible. Character, scholarship, leadership, and service, listed in the order of their importance, are the criteria for selection which is made by a faculty committee.

In this group are found the student leaders of our school. The S. H. S. H. S. sets the standards for the entire student group. Every member of this honor group is personally responsible for upholding the ideals to which he pledges his loyalty and support.

Membership in this organization is both an honor and responsibility. Honor Society members are the leaders of tomorrow's world.

SCOTTIE REVUE

Quiet. You could actually hear a pin drop in S. H. S. Explanation of the miracle? Scottie Revue. Yes, that was an eagerly awaited notice, "Scottie Revue on sale at noon." Scottie Revue was popular with students, no doubt of that.

Editor Pat Murtha, with the assistance of Miss Fausold as faculty adviser, and her loyal student helpers got the paper off to a good start with the September issue. Sponsoring the Senior Personality Poll, and the Gridiron Queen coronation as in former years, the Scottie Revue staff conducted student polls and reported the majority opinions of teen-agers on their problems.

Something new was added this year, a student photographer. It was her job to get informal shots of school activities.

Every staff member was asked to contribute a great deal of time and work to the school paper and each responded with enthusiastic cooperation. Hard work but fun!

In the season's opening game with the Perry Commodores, the Scotties won a hard-fought victory by a score of 15-0. Aggressive play by both lines predominated the fray.

The Millers encountered a stout aggregation from Georges Twp. in the second game of the season. The Scotties lost this bitter battle 26-0, but the inspired second-half play of the outmatched Scottie team was something to behold.

In the contest with Derry Borough, the Scotties after a mediocre first half came back in the second stanza to thoroughly whip the visitors 19-0. This was the second win of the season.

Entertaining Somerset on their own field, the Scotties went down to defeat 13-12 in a sea of mud. Despite expectation of a slow game because of heavy rain, the contest proved to be a brilliant offense show.

On their first outing of the season, the Scotties ended up on the short end of a 7-0 score, their first loss to Ramsay in three years. It was an evenly-matched game but a second period Bobcat score set up by a Scottie fumble proved the margin of victory.

GOWER

OPALINSKY

Entering their 4th game with a 2-1 record the Scotties added another victory 12-0 at the expense of West Newton. The Millers were hardpressed to overcome the Yellow Jackets and a stirring defensive contest was witnessed by all.

STONER

On the road once again, the Scotties next tangled with undefeated Blairsville High. Although the Scotties were not up to par for this match they held the powerful Blairsville eleven to four touchdowns with the final count 26-0.

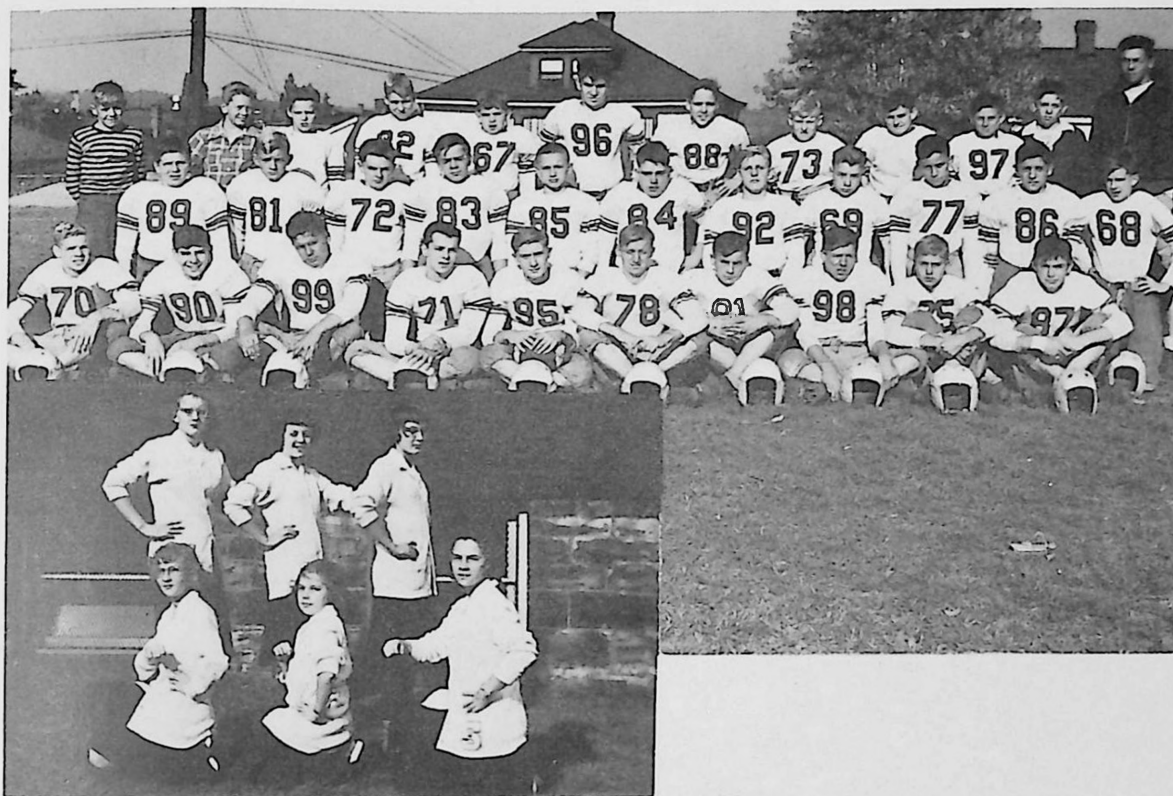

The Scotties traveled to Dunbar and battled their traditional rival the Mules to a scoreless tie. The out-weighted Scottie line played brilliantly throughout the contest.

The Millers went on the road for their final game with Hurst and were nosed out 12-6. This game, the season's highlight, showed an underdog Scottie eleven reach its peak performance against the Scarlet Hurricane in a game in which the victory hung in the balance until the closing horn on the fray.

On the home field again, an inspired Scottie team took the opening kickoff and staged an 80-yard drive for the only score of the contest with the Bulldogs of East Huntington. Thoroughly outplayed, they were saved from a rout only by Scottie penalties and crucial miscues on the muddy field.

The Girls' Athletic Association rolled through another year filled with sports activities of all kinds. Initiation was a test of good sportsmanship with capers of all kinds dreamed up by upperclassmen.

Members had to take time out from ping pong, volley ball, basketball, and swimming to earn money for the use of the Y.

Preparation for the basketball invitation tournament was rugged, and winners in the preliminary games were selected for the tournament team.

A dinner honoring senior members concluded the year's activities of the club which was sponsored by Miss Wetzel.

F. H. A.

A chapter of the Future Homemakers of America was first organized in our school this year and was sponsored by Miss Irene Davis. The purpose is indicated by the F. H. A. Creed which follows:

We are the Future Homemakers of America
We face the future with warm courage,
And high hope.
For we have the clear consciousness of seeking
Old and precious values.
For we are the builders of homes.
Homes for America's future.
Homes where living will be the expression of everything
That is good and fair.
Homes where truth and love and security and faith
Will be realities, not dreams.

HI-Y

"Where's Hyatt?" This was the question of the hour, on Monday evening, as the members of Hi-Y appeared at the usual meeting place at the Y.

In October, fifteen new members were inducted. Two weeks later they were taken for a ride in a coal truck. Of course they had to walk home. The last stop was Reagentown.

Hi-Y prospered this year. The members earned a nice sum by cleaning the bleachers after every football game. The dances also helped financially. The club made a generous contribution to the fund for an automatic bell system, an all-school project initiated by Student Council.

Officers for the year were: Keith Hyatt, president; George Beck, vice president; Charles Emmer, secretary-treasurer.

Dancing at the Y, rushing to get the food on the table before the hungry football players arrived, cutting fancy figures at the skating rink, Betas had an action-packed fun-filled year which came to a close too soon. From formal initiation of thirty members in October to senior farewell party in May for twenty-two graduates, events came thick and fast. They took time out to make and send scrapbooks to the hospital at Christmas. Miss Wetzell, Mrs. Maloy, and Mrs. Beck were the sponsors of this peppy group.

ALPHA-TRI-HI-Y

Alpha enjoyed an eventful year. Twenty-one new members were initiated in September. And all enjoyed the hayride under a full harvest moon a few weeks later. This group sponsored the Thanksgiving assembly. Dances, skating parties, banquets, all were taken in stride by these active girls. They had their serious moments, too. Church attendance once a month was a must. The party for seniors was the final event of the year with eleven graduating members as honor guests. Sponsors were Miss Marjorie Dick, Mrs. J. C. George, and Mrs. George Hollenbaugh.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

American Junior Red Cross is a service organization. As in past years, the high school group carried out the program which is planned at national headquarters. This included the November roll call to which 25 students responded. Two home-rooms had one hundred per cent enrollment.

Gift boxes to be sent overseas were packed in December, each home-room contributing at least one. These boxes were filled with school supplies and small toys and personal ornaments. No project of Junior Red Cross has been received with greater delight overseas. Scottdale High counsellors have received letters of appreciation from recipients of these boxes in past years.

Club members designed attractive posters and made scrapbooks for hospitalized veterans. They also collected clothes to be sent abroad to children of war-devastated countries.

Under the leadership of capable officers, assisted by Miss Marjorie Dick, the faculty sponsor, the club has enjoyed a service-full year.

When the famous G-E monogram appears on the appliance you're buying, you can buy it with complete confidence. For behind it stands the strongest organization in the appliance business . . . the leader in the field.

THE MANUFACTURER

The G-E monogram stands for more than a mere trade mark. It stands for research scientists and designers, working every day to create new products, new features that lighten the work and add to the pleasure of living. It stands for skilled production men, striving to make these products ever better and more dependable; men and women who know the responsibility of leadership.

THE DEALER

You do not find G-E products in every store where appliances are sold. To quality as a G-E dealer, the reputation, ability and responsibility.

You can buy with confidence, knowing you will receive fair treatment and intelligent presentation of appliances that best meet your needs.

Look over these appliances then come in and we'll tell you more about them.

You can depend on your G-E dealer

WHO ARE YOUR FRIENDS?

Young folks do not always remember that they are often judged by the company they keep. The world looks upon the friends we associate with, and registers us accordingly. It is therefore important for us to choose proper friends and to be cautious about losing them by serious engagement.

This friendly thought was taken from John Wanamaker's writings and we sincerely hope it will guide you into many worthwhile friendships throughout life.
